

Capability Statement

ABOUT US

Yvette Gavin Consulting (YGC) is a leadership development, strategic facilitation, and workforce capability firm supporting federal agencies, defense organizations, and mission-driven institutions operating in complex environments. We specialize in designing and delivering high-impact leadership experiences that strengthen decision-making, alignment, and execution at the individual, team, and enterprise levels.

YGC partners with organizations where leadership effectiveness directly impacts mission outcomes. Our work spans leadership development facilitated planning and alignment sessions, behavioral and leadership style assessments, and on-demand expert support. We combine deep experience in adult learning, behavioral assessment, and facilitation with a strong understanding of federal and defense operating contexts, enabling us to deliver practical, results-oriented solutions that translate directly to the job.
